Scope and Method

This document records the verifiable military service and ancestry history of fourteen individuals across four family lines — Bounds (maternal blood), Lewis (paternal blood), Sanford (married in), and Baebler / Clark / Cantrell (maternal extended through Judy Baebler). It is compiled for Tricia Sanford from facts she provided, web research conducted May 26, 2026, and supporting historical context.

Three rules govern this document:

1. Verified facts are statements supported by a publicly-accessible web source. Each one carries an inline citation with a URL. If no source could be found, the document says so explicitly.
2. Family memory is recorded in its own clearly-labeled subsection for each person. It is not promoted to “verified” unless an external source corroborates it.
3. Theories are labeled as theories, with a note of what would confirm or refute each one.

Records the document does not claim to have accessed: the National Personnel Records Center (NPRC) Official Military Personnel Files; the VA Claims Files (C-files); the FBI’s individual file holdings beyond what is in the public FBI Vault; sealed Missouri penitentiary and Department of Corrections records; and any paywalled genealogy database (Ancestry image viewer, Fold3, Newspapers.com behind paywall). Every record of those types appears only in the Next Steps sections, with the form, URL, and office to request it.

The 1973 NPRC fire destroyed approximately 80% of US Army personnel files for service members discharged between November 1, 1912 and January 1, 1960, and approximately 75% of US Air Force files for members discharged between September 25, 1947 and January 1, 1964 with surnames alphabetically between “Hubbard” and “Z”. Navy and Marine Corps records were stored separately and generally survived. This is flagged on every entry where it applies. ## Ancestry Context — Patsy Lewis’s October 2025 DNA Test (Maternal Side Only)

Patsy Lewis (Tricia’s mother) tested with Ancestry in October 2025. Results reflect Patsy’s full ancestry, but the analysis here is restricted to her maternal line (Bounds and Baebler-extended), because Paul D. Lewis Sr.’s (Tricia’s father, the Lewis paternal line) DNA has not been tested.

| Netherlands (Western Europe)                                                                                  | 2%       |
| Nigeria                                                                                                       | 1%       |
| Eastern European Roma (Southeastern Europe)                                                                   | 1%       |
| Ivory Coast & Ghana                                                                                           | <1%      |

Note on the 1% Eastern European Roma result. The Romani people of Eastern Europe were the targets of the Nazi genocide known as the Porajmos (“the Devouring”) during World War II; the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum’s lower-bound estimate is at least 250,000 European Roma murdered, with some scholars estimating up to 500,000 — roughly a quarter of Europe’s pre-war Romani population. The Lewis paternal side is currently untested. If/when tested, it could be added as a separate appendix.

Bounds Line — Maternal Blood

1. John Bounds — Great-Great-Uncle

Family memory (per Tricia Sanford)

- Pearl Harbor survivor, December 7, 1941.
- Branch unknown; family believes Navy.

Verified facts (web research)

- None located. Public search of the Pearl Harbor casualty/survivor lists hosted by the National Park Service, USS Arizona Memorial Association, the Pearl Harbor Survivors Online Casualty List, and the USS West Virginia Pearl Harbor list did not return a confirmed match for “John Bounds.” Several of those public pages also returned HTTP 403 errors to automated fetches, meaning a manual person-by-person search of those rosters by a researcher in a browser is still required before concluding the name is not there.

Theories / open questions

- Possible name confusion. Public records contain a well-documented Pearl Harbor survivor named James Bounds of USS Oklahoma — rescued roughly 36 hours after the ship capsized, transferred to USS Helena, retired as a Navy officer in 1967. He is not the same individual as the family’s USAF MSgt James Bounds (Person 3 below), and he may or may not be the person the family knows as “John.” It is worth confirming whether the family member’s first name was actually James, or John, or whether John Bounds is a separate person entirely. - Distinguishing data needed to confirm any candidate: state of enlistment, ship assigned, service number, or birth/death dates.

2. Solomon Cecil “S.C.” Bounds — Great-Grandfather

Family memory (per Tricia Sanford)

- Born approximately 1880–1900.
- Bounds maternal line.
- Likely Ohio or Kentucky roots.

Verified facts (web research)

- None located. No public-web hit for “Solomon C Bounds,” “Solomon Cecil Bounds,” or “S.C. Bounds” in indexed snippets from the FamilySearch WWI Draft Registration Cards collection, Find a Grave, or Ohio History Connection finding aids.

Theories / open questions

- Theory (family-supplied): S.C. Bounds registered for the WWI draft (1917–1918). The standard free index is FamilySearch’s United States World War I Draft Registration Cards, 1917–1918 collection. Confirmation requires a direct logged-in search of that index filtered to Ohio and Kentucky with given-name variants (Solomon, Sol, S, S.C., Cecil) and an approximate birth year. The actual cards themselves are NARA series M1509, held at NARA Atlanta.
- Unrelated namesake found. A “George Washington Bounds (1834–1916)” on Find a Grave is listed as a son of “Solomon and Nancy Fullengam/Fillingame Bounds.” That older Solomon predates the WWI draft window and is almost certainly a different person; he is recorded here only so future family researchers don’t conflate the two lines. ## 3. James Bounds — Maternal Grandfather

Family memory and family-documented facts (per Tricia Sanford)

These facts are documented in family records (DD-214, retired ID, family papers) and reproduced here for the family file. They are not separately verified online but are externally consistent with the unit history below.

- US Air Force, Master Sergeant (MSgt), E-7.<sup>1</sup>

Verified facts and external corroboration (web research)

- The 4th Strategic Aerospace Division (also known as the 4th Air Division) was a SAC intermediate command echelon. Reactivated in 1951 (Barksdale AFB, Louisiana); moved to Grand Forks AFB, North Dakota in 1964; moved to Francis E. Warren AFB, Wyoming in July 1971; inactivated August 23, 1988. At its 1971+ F.E. Warren station the division controlled four Minuteman ICBM wings and two B-52 bomber wings. The “Strategic Aerospace Division” designation came from a spring-1962 SAC-wide renaming for divisions that controlled both bombers and missiles. Source: USAF biography of BG Gerald G. Fall Jr. (commanded 4th SAD) — <https://www.af.mil/About-Us/Biographies/Display/Article/107114/brigadier-general-gerald-g-fall-jr/>; Source: Wikipedia — 4th Air Division — [https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/4th\_Air\_Division; Source: F.E. Warren AFB History — <https://www.warren.af.mil/About-Us/Base-History/>]
- Therefore James Bounds's final duty station was almost certainly F.E. Warren AFB, Wyoming, given his October 1974 release falls within the 1971–1988 F.E. Warren window. (To be confirmed against his DD-214.)
- Service number prefix analysis. His service number (held in the family file, not reproduced here) carries the “AF” prefix identifying Air Force. The leading two-digit geographic code on his number matches the WWII Army Selective Service code for the Eighth Corps Area, which covered Texas, Oklahoma, Colorado, New Mexico, and Arizona (headquartered Fort Sam Houston, Texas). Post-1948 Regular Air Force enlistments used the 11-million through 19-million number range; post-1948 AF draftees used the 50–59

<sup>1</sup>Rank pending confirmation against NPRC retirement order. Family voice records contain both “MSgt” and “SMSgt” references; family knowledge identifies MSgt as the documented rank, but the official paperwork should be the final authority. - Approximately 30 years of service. - World War II and Korean War service confirmed. Worked the SAC bomber progression: B-29 → B-47 → B-52.

million range — neither matches his number's prefix. The most consistent interpretation is that James Bounds was originally a WWII-era Army or Army Air Forces Selective Service draftee whose number was retained with the new “AF” prefix when the US Air Force became a separate service in 1947. This is consistent with the family record of WWII service. - The B-29 → B-47 → B-52 progression matches the documented SAC bomber mechanic career arc spanning the late 1940s through the 1970s.

Theories / open questions

- Theory: James Bounds was drafted in the WWII Eighth Corps Area (TX/OK/CO/NM/AZ), most likely Texas given Fort Sam Houston was the corps HQ. Family knowledge of where he was living when drafted would confirm.
- Likely final station: F.E. Warren AFB, Cheyenne, Wyoming.

4. Paul Bounds — Great-Uncle (brother of James Bounds)

Family memory (per Tricia Sanford)

- US Army, World War II.
- Fought in the Battle of the Bulge (Ardennes Counteroffensive, December 16, 1944 – January 25, 1945).
- Family nickname for the battle: “Battle of Aberdeen” — this is a family name, not the official designation. The real-world battle is the Battle of the Bulge / Ardennes Counteroffensive.
- Unit unknown. Possibly under 1st Army or 3rd Army (the two US Armies most heavily engaged in the Ardennes).

Verified facts (web research)

- None located for Paul Bounds personally. Search engine snippets did not surface a record in the NARA Access to Archival Databases (AAD) WWII Army Enlistment Records index for him; AAD requires direct query inside the database, which a human researcher can do for free at <https://aad.archives.gov/aad/fielded-search.jsp?dt=893&tf=F>
- The Battle of the Bulge is fully documented: the last major German offensive on the Western Front, December 16, 1944 – January 25, 1945, fought through the Ardennes Forest of Belgium and Luxembourg. Over 600,000 US troops eventually engaged — the largest battle in US Army history. US casualties roughly 75,000–80,000 (19,246 killed per official Army count). [Source: US Army Center of Military History — <https://www.history.army.mil/html/reference/bulge/>; Source: National WWII Museum — <https://www.nationalww2museum.org/war/articles/battle-of-the-bulge>; Source: US Army — <https://www.army.mil/botb/>]

Theories / open questions

- The 1973 NPRC fire affects Paul Bounds’s records directly. Army personnel discharged November 1, 1912 – January 1, 1960 had approximately 80% of files destroyed; a WWII Army discharge falls squarely in this destroyed window. His Official Military Personnel File is most likely gone. Reconstruction from auxiliary records (Final Pay Vouchers, unit Morning Reports, VA index) is the documented path. ## 5. Ronald “Ron” Bounds — Uncle

Per Tricia’s instruction, this entry records service facts only. No character commentary. No romanticizing.

Verification status: the service narrative below comes from family memory. The NPRC Official Military Personnel File has not yet been pulled. Treat unit assignment, discharge characterization, and the upgrade pathway as pending NPRC verification until the DD-214 and discharge-review decisional document are in hand.

Family memory and family-documented facts (per Tricia Sanford)

- Date of birth: November 26, 1950.
- US Army, 101st Airborne Division.
- Survived the Battle of Hamburger Hill (Hill 937 / Dong Ap Bia, A Shau Valley, Vietnam, May 10–20, 1969). Age 18 at the time.
- After the battle, convinced fellow Hamburger Hill survivors to desert with him. Went to Sweden.
- Initially received a Dishonorable Discharge.
- His father, USAF MSgt James Bounds (Person 3), used Air Force connections to obtain an upgrade to Other Than Honorable via Discharge Review Board.
- Returned to the United States.
- Heroin addiction. In and out of prison. Deceased.

Verified facts and external corroboration (web research)

- All three candidate battalions of the 101st Airborne Division named in family research — 3rd Battalion 187th Infantry “Rakkasans”; 1st Battalion 506th Infantry “Currahees”; and 2nd Battalion 501st Infantry — are independently confirmed as the assault battalions on Hill 937, May 10–20, 1969, during Operation Apache Snow. All three were in the 3rd Brigade, 101st Airborne Division (Airmobile). The 3/187 under Lt. Col. Weldon “Tiger” Honeycutt bore the heaviest fighting and casualties on the hill itself, conducting the main north-face assaults. The 1/506 attacked from the south and joined the two-battalion final assault on May 18–20. The 2/501 was committed later in the battle as reinforcement. US casualties reported as 72 KIA / 372 WIA. - Sweden was the only nation to grant formal asylum status to US military deserters during the Vietnam War. Roughly 800–1,000 American resisters reached Sweden between April 1967 and March 1973; about two-thirds were military deserters (not draft evaders). Sweden granted humanitarian asylum (not refugee status); the policy caused the United States to recall its ambassador to Stockholm in 1969. - Carter’s Proclamation 4483 (January 21, 1977) pardoned draft evaders only. It did not cover Uniform Code of Military Justice offenses including desertion. Deserters were addressed earlier under Ford’s Presidential Clemency Program (Executive Order 11803 / Proclamation 4313, September 16, 1974), which required up to 24 months of alternate service and produced a “clemency discharge” that did not restore VA benefits. After the Ford program closed, individual case-by-case discharge review remained the path forward — which is consistent with the family-recorded upgrade pathway. - Army Discharge Review Board (ADRB) jurisdictional note. The ADRB reviews discharges issued within the previous 15 years; older cases go to the Army Board for Correction of Military Records (ABCMR). The ADRB cannot upgrade a court-martial Dishonorable Discharge — those can only be modified by the ABCMR. This means the family-stated upgrade from “Dishonorable” to “Other Than Honorable” most likely went through one of two paths: (a) the original characterization was actually a Bad Conduct Discharge or an administrative Other Than Honorable (rather than a court-martial DD), and ADRB upgraded it; or (b) the action went through ABCMR. - Lee Robins’s 1974 study *The Vietnam Drug User Returns (Special Action Office for Drug Abuse Prevention Monograph A-2) followed 965 returning servicemen and found roughly 34% had used heroin in Vietnam and roughly 20% met dependence criteria, yet only about 1% were re-addicted in the first year home and 5–12% relapsed over 1–3 years. The study upended the prevailing belief that opioid addiction was effectively permanent — though a meaningful minority did relapse, and Vietnam-era addiction is well documented as a vector into civilian opioid use, criminal-justice involvement, and downstream mortality. ## Theories / open questions

- Which battalion was Ron in? 3/187, 1/506, or 2/501 — all three were on Hill 937. His DD-214 (block 18 / assignments) or his NPRC-released OMPF will name the unit. Cross-reference with the May 1969 morning reports for that battalion (held at NPRC) and the 3rd Brigade after-action report (“Combat After Action Report — Operation Apache Snow,” HQ 3d Bde, 101st Abn Div, 1969), held at NARA RG 472 and US Army Center of Military History.
- Was the original discharge a true court-martial Dishonorable, or a Bad Conduct / OTH? Material because a true GCM Dishonorable cannot be upgraded by ADRB. The decisional document (ADRB or ABCMR) will be in the NPRC packet.
- Wall of Faces (Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund) could not be queried via automated fetch in this session — flagged as a manual next-step. Expected negative result (Ron survived).

6. Jim Bounds — Uncle (Family Record Only)

Family memory (per Tricia Sanford)

- Did not serve in the military.
- Caused a family rift with his mother.

- No further service records to research.

Verified facts (web research)

- Per Tricia's instruction, no web research was conducted on this entry. He is recorded here for family-record completeness.

Lewis Line — Paternal Blood

7. Albert Lewis — Paternal Grandfather

Family memory (per Tricia Sanford)

- US Army, 4 years of service.
- Cook MOS (likely 060 in the older MOS coding system).
- Kentucky roots.
- Era unknown; likely World War II or Korea.

Verified facts and external corroboration (web research)

- No specific candidate identified for Albert Lewis personally. “Albert Lewis” is common; without a more specific narrowing factor (DOB, county of enlistment) no candidate could be confirmed from public-web snippets.
- MOS 060 is confirmed as the WWII-era Army occupational specialty code for “Cook.” Army Technical Manual TM 12-427 (Military Occupational Classification of Enlisted Personnel, 12 July 1944) listed MOS 060 — Cook — for enlisted personnel; duties included preparing food per recipes/menus, seasoning and cooking meats/soups/desserts/vegetables, and observing kitchen sanitation regulations. The Army moved to a new MOS structure in 1949, so “060” specifically points to a WWII-era classification. If Albert Lewis served in Korea or later, his cook MOS code was different and “060” reflects family memory of the WWII-era convention. [Source: Strictly GI — WWII MOS Database (060 Cook) — <https://www.strictly-gi.com/wwii-mos-database/060-cook/>; Source: TM 12-427 (1944), Internet Archive — <https://archive.org/details/TM12-427>; Source: The Military Yearbook Project — Army MOS Codes WWII Era — <https://militaryyearbookproject.org/references/old-mos-codes/wwii-era/army-wwii-codes/army-mos-codes-wwii-era>]

Theories / open questions

- The 1973 NPRC fire affects Albert Lewis’s record directly. If he was a WWII or Korea Army discharge between November 1, 1912 and January 1, 1960, his Official Military Personnel File has roughly an 80% chance of being among the 16–18 million records destroyed in the July 12, 1973 fire. Reconstruction from auxiliary records is the path. [Source: NARA — The 1973 Fire — <https://www.archives.gov/personnel-records-center/fire-1973>]
- Era confirmation. The 060 MOS code strongly suggests WWII, but family memory of MOS numbers from grandparents is often imperfect. Census records (1940, 1950) showing his civilian occupation and age would help bracket his enlistment window.

8. Paul D. Lewis Sr. — Father

Family memory and family-documented facts (per Tricia Sanford)

- US Army, Vietnam 1968–69, 13 months in country.
- Served with both the 62nd Engineer Battalion (Combat) (Land Clearing) and the 984th Land Clearing Company.
- Rome Plow / D7E bulldozer operator — jungle and pass clearing.
- Direct Agent Orange exposure.
- Died 2007 of an Agent Orange-recognized condition.
- The VA recognized his death as service-connected, post-mortem.
- His widow, Patsy Lewis, receives Dependency and Indemnity Compensation (DIC) survivor benefits, beginning 2021.

Verified facts and external corroboration (web research)

The family-stated facts above are fully consistent with documented unit history:

- 62nd Engineer Battalion deployed to Vietnam in August 1965. In January 1969 the battalion was redesignated in mission (though not officially renamed) as the 62nd Engineer Battalion (Land Clearing) and took on jungle-clearing using Rome Plows. Between July 1969 and October 1970 the battalion’s Rome Plows cleared roughly 240,000 acres of jungle in South Vietnam in support of II Field Force. The battalion served in 14 Vietnam campaigns. [Source: Veterans Breakfast Club — How to Clear a Jungle: The 62d Engineer Battalion (Land Clearing) in Vietnam — <https://veteransbreakfastclub.org/how-to-clear-a-jungle-the-62d-engineer-battalion-land-clearing-in-vietnam/>; Source: GlobalSecurity — 62nd Engineer Combat Battalion — <https://www.globalsecurity.org/military/agency/army/62eng.htm>]
- The 984th Land Clearing Company was activated in January 1969, formed from prior Land Clearing Teams, and was assigned to the 62nd Engineer Battalion for II Field Force land-clearing operations. So a Rome Plow operator who appears on the rolls of both the 62nd Engineer Battalion and the 984th LC Company is structurally normal: the 984th was a subordinate company of the 62nd. Targets included the Iron Triangle, Ho Bo Woods, and Bo Loi Woods. - The 20th Engineer Brigade (parent organization) landed in Vietnam in August 1967 and operated across Military Regions III and IV until 1971 with ~13,000 personnel. By December 1968 land-clearing teams were reorganized into companies of 30 Rome Plows each, six total — three assigned to the 20th Engineer Brigade and three to the 18th Engineer Brigade. Built by the Rome Plow Company of Rome, Georgia. Fully equipped weight ~48,000 lb. Each Land Clearing Company fielded 30 plows. Daily target: 100–200 acres of triple-canopy jungle. Source: Wikipedia — Rome plow — [https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Rome\_plow; Source: USACE Digital Library — Rome plow operator clears land in Vietnam — <https://usace.contentdm.oclc.org/digital/collection/p15141coll5/id/617/>]

- Agent Orange — VA’s “boots-on-ground” presumption. Veterans who served anywhere in Vietnam between January 9, 1962 and May 7, 1975 are presumed to have been exposed to herbicides for VA service-connection purposes; no individual proof of exposure is required. The PACT Act of 2022 expanded the presumptive list. - Direct Agent Orange exposure of Rome Plow operators. Operation Ranch Hand (1962–1971) sprayed approximately 19 million gallons of herbicide in Vietnam, including roughly 11.2 million gallons of Agent Orange. Once foliage was killed, Rome Plows came in to physically remove the woody debris and tree stumps — putting operators in sustained direct contact with herbicide-saturated soil, splintered biomass, and burning slash. Note on timing: Paul Sr.’s 13 months in country during 1968–69 spans the Land Clearing Team → Land Clearing Company transition (LCTs operating 1967 – December 1968; LC Companies activated January 1969). If he arrived in country in 1968, he likely joined as Land Clearing Team personnel and rolled over into the 984th LC Company at the January 1969 reorganization, which would naturally explain his appearing on the rolls of both the 62nd Engineer Battalion and the 984th LC Company.

Theories / open questions

- Which Agent Orange-presumptive condition was the recognized cause of death? Not stated and not publicly researchable — this is in the VA C-file. The current VA presumptive list (as of 2026) includes approximately 23 conditions: cancers (bladder, lung/bronchus/larynx/trachea, prostate, soft tissue sarcoma, multiple myeloma, NHL, AL amyloidosis, CLL, Hodgkin's, chronic B-cell leukemias), heart disease (ischemic heart disease), endocrine (Type 2 diabetes mellitus, hypothyroidism), neurologic (Parkinson's disease, Parkinsonism, early-onset peripheral neuropathy), skin (chloracne, porphyria cutanea tarda), hypertension, and MGUS, plus additions under the PACT Act of 2022.

9. Paul “Dougie” Lewis Jr. — Brother

Verification status: the service facts below come from family memory. The DD-214 has not yet been pulled via SF-180 / eVetRecs. Treat the assignment and the Air Force One fueling detail as pending NPRC verification until the DD-214 is in hand.

Family memory and family-documented facts (per Tricia Sanford)

- US Air Force, 1988–1992.
- Fueled Air Force One at Andrews Air Force Base (89th Airlift Wing area).
- Died November 12, 2019.

Verified facts and external corroboration (web research)

- The 89th Airlift Wing is the Air Mobility Command wing at Joint Base Andrews, Maryland responsible for Special Air Mission (SAM) airlift for the President, Vice President, Cabinet, and senior US government and military leaders. It operates the two VC-25A (modified Boeing 747-200B) aircraft that carry the “Air Force One” call sign whenever the President is aboard, through its Presidential Airlift Group. The VC-25As entered service in 1990 — during Paul Jr.’s enlistment. Source: Joint Base Andrews — 89th Airlift Wing fact sheet — <https://www.jba.af.mil/About/Fact-Sheets/Display/Article/336383/89th-airlift-wing/>; Source: Wikipedia — 89th Airlift Wing — [https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/89th\_Airlift\_Wing; Source: Air & Space Forces Magazine — Special Mission, Special Fleet — <https://www.airandspaceforces.com/article/special-mission-special-fleet/>]
- Wing redesignation timeline: activated in 1949 as 89th Troop Carrier Wing; redesignated 89th Military Airlift Wing in 1966; redesignated 89th Airlift Wing in 1991 — so during Paul Jr.’s 1988–1992 service, the wing was the 89th MAW for the first portion of his enlistment and the 89th AW from 1991 onward.
- Air Force fuels career field, late 1980s – early 1990s. In September 1964 the Air Force created the 63XXX Fuels career field. During 1988–1992, the enlisted Fuels AFSC was AFSC 631X0 (Petroleum Fuels), with shred A (Petroleum Fuels) and shred B (Missile Liquid Fuels — moved out to 546X0F in 1977). Initial technical training was at Chanute AFB, Illinois. AFSC 631X0 duties: receive, store, issue, and dispense petroleum fuels and cryogenics; operate and maintain refueling vehicles, hydrant systems, and bulk storage; conduct fuels quality testing. The AFSC was later restructured to 2F0X1 in the mid-1990s. [Source: DTIC — Fuels Career Ladder, AFSC 2F0X1 (Formerly 631X0), ADA298879 — <https://apps.dtic.mil/sti/tr/pdf/ADA298879.pdf>; Source: DTIC — Fuels Career Ladder AFSC 631X0, ADA107473 — <https://apps.dtic.mil/sti/tr/pdf/ADA107473.pdf>]
- At Andrews AFB during 1988–1992, base-level fueling of 89th MAW/AW aircraft (including the VC-25A after 1990) would have been performed by the host wing’s fuels organization (then the 1776th Air Base Wing at Andrews, whose fuels functions were later folded under the 89th’s organizational restructuring). Presidential airlift refueling involves the Presidential Airlift Group’s own logistics chain on mission, but base-level on-ramp fueling for SAM aircraft at home station is routinely handled by the host-wing fuels element. The family-stated framing (“fueled Air Force One at Andrews”) is therefore consistent with assignment as a 631X0 fuels specialist at Andrews during this window. [Source: White House Military Office archive — <https://georgewbush-whitehouse.archives.gov/whmo/af1.html>]

Theories / open questions

- Exact assigned unit at Andrews is not researchable from public web alone. Likely candidates: 1776th Air Base Wing fuels flight (the Andrews host wing during much of his service), or its successor organization as 89th-wing functions consolidated. His DD-214 will name the squadron and group.
- Confirmation of November 12, 2019 death could not be located via public obituary or news search; this would be confirmable via Find a Grave, SSA Death Master File / Public Death Index, or family obituary records.

Sanford — Married In

10. Brady “Braden Thomas” Sanford Sr. — Husband (File-Completeness Entry) Family-documented facts (per Tricia Sanford)

Already well-documented in family records; reproduced here so this document is a complete family file.

- US Air Force, July 8, 1992 – July 7, 1996.
- Date of birth: November 5, 1973.
- AFSC: F-16 Tactical Aircraft Maintenance (a critical-shortage AFSC at the time).
- Squadron: 78th Fighter Squadron “Bushmasters”, 20th Fighter Wing, Shaw AFB, Sumter, South Carolina.
- Deployment: Operation Southern Watch, January – April 1995, Saudi Arabia, no-fly zone enforcement over southern Iraq.
- Rank at separation: Senior Airman (E-4).
- Separation: Honorable Release.
- Reserve discharge: July 1, 1999, honorable.
- NPRC Certification of Military Service issued April 19, 2017.

Verified facts and external corroboration (web research)

The family record is directly corroborated by published unit history:

- The 78th Fighter Squadron “Bushmasters” activated at Shaw AFB on January 1, 1994 as part of the 20th Fighter Wing’s return from RAF Upper Heyford, UK. The squadron flew F-16C/D Block 50 aircraft. The 78th had previously been with the 81st Tactical Fighter Wing at RAF Bentwaters, UK. Source: GlobalSecurity — 78th FS — <https://www.globalsecurity.org/military/agency/usaf/78fs.htm>; Source: Wikipedia — 78th Attack Squadron — [https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/78th\_Attack\_Squadron]
- In the first three months of 1995 the 78th FS deployed to Southwest Asia and flew 1,150 sorties / 3,293 flying hours over the no-fly zone — equivalent to nine months of training compressed into three. This directly matches the family-recorded Jan–Apr 1995 Operation Southern Watch deployment. The Bushmasters flew 1,197 total sorties in support of Operation Southern Watch. They flew more F-16 sorties (5,452) in 1996 than any other ACC squadron. [Source: GlobalSecurity — 78th FS — <https://www.globalsecurity.org/military/agency/usaf/78fs.htm>]
- The 20th Fighter Wing was originally established 20 July 1947 at Shaw Field, South Carolina; activated 15 August 1947. After 40+ years in the UK, it transferred from USAFE to Air Combat Command on December 15, 1993 and reassigned to Shaw AFB (replacing the 363d Fighter Wing under the USAF heritage program). Current mission: provide, project, and sustain combat-ready F-16CJ aircraft in suppression of enemy air defenses (SEAD), strategic attack, counter-air, air interdiction, joint maritime operations, and combat search-and-rescue. Source: Shaw AFB — 20th FW Fact Sheet — <https://www.shaw.af.mil/About-Us/Fact-Sheets/Display/Article/212636/20th-fighter-wing-fact-sheet/>; Source: Wikipedia — 20th Fighter Wing — [https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/20th\_Fighter\_Wing]
- Operation Southern Watch began August 27, 1992 under UN Security Council Resolution 688 (April 5, 1991), enforcing a no-fly zone over Iraq south of the 32nd parallel (extended to the 33rd parallel in 1996); continued until April 14, 2003 when it was superseded by Operation Iraqi Freedom. Conducted by Joint Task Force Southwest Asia under US Central Command; the Air Force component (US Central Command Air Forces / Ninth Air Force) was headquartered at Shaw AFB — meaning Shaw units carried disproportionate OSW rotation loads throughout the 1990s. Coalition partners included the UK, France (until late 1996), and Saudi Arabia. Source: AF Historical Support Division — 1991 Operation Southern Watch — <https://www.afhistory.af.mil/FAQs/Fact-Sheets/Article/458951/1991-operation-southern-watch/>; Source: DAFHistory — Jamieson, Southern Iraq — [https://www.dafhistory.af.mil/Portals/16/documents/Airmen-at-War/Jamieson\_SouthernIraq30Sep15.pdf; Source: AFHRA / DoD — Crisis in Southern Iraq — <https://media.defense.gov/2012/Aug/23/2001330107/-1/-1/0/Oper%20Southern%20Watch.pdf>]

Note: Brady Sr. enlisted July 8, 1992 — six months before the 78th FS activated at Shaw on Jan 1, 1994. His first 18 months in the F-16 maintenance pipeline were therefore likely in a precursor unit (the 363d Fighter Wing at Shaw, or initial training/tech school) before transferring to the 78th FS when it stood up at Shaw on Jan 1, 1994.

Baebler / Clark / Cantrell — Maternal Extended (Judy Baebler’s Marriages)

11. Judy Baebler — Maternal Grandmother (Family Record Only)

Family memory (per Tricia Sanford)

- Married eight times.
- Patsy Lewis (Tricia’s mother) is her daughter.
- Family-characterized as cruel and terrifying.
- No military service to research.

Verified facts (web research)

- Per Tricia’s instruction, no web research was conducted on this entry. She is recorded here for family-record completeness and as the connecting figure for the Cantrell, Clark, and Baebler entries below.

12. Eugene Norman Cantrell — Judy Baebler’s 7th Husband

Family memory (per Tricia Sanford)

- 7th husband of Judy Baebler.
- Mob-connected.
- Son of Etalane Clark (Person 13 below).

Verified facts (web research)

- None located. No public-web hit was found for an Eugene Norman Cantrell with the Festus / Jefferson County, Missouri tie expected based on his mother’s location. The FBI Vault contains no Cantrell file set; the BOP inmate locator returns no historical results; the Missouri State Penitentiary online database covers only inmates 1836–1931 (outside his likely window); the Missouri Death Index requires direct search. The “mob-connected” claim is not currently corroborable from public sources.

Theories / open questions

13. Etalane Clark (“Granny”) — Step-Great-Grandmother

Family memory (per Tricia Sanford)

- Mother of Eugene Norman Cantrell (Person 12). Through Judy Baebler’s marriage to Eugene, she became Tricia’s step-great-grandmother.
- Died in Festus, Missouri, in the 1990s.
- Possibly received a Presidential birthday letter — likely Clinton-era (1993–2000), possibly for her 100th birthday.
- Approximately 4 feet 6 inches tall, ~90 lbs.
- Animal welfare advocate.
- Estranged from her mother; close to her father.
- Severed ties with her son Eugene; remained loyal to her daughter-in-law Judy.
- Family description (Tricia’s own words): outlaw, fearless, danced on bar tables in her 70s, made 300-lb men back off, “coolest granny ever.”

Verified facts (web research)

- None located. Searches under “Etalane Clark,” “Etaline Clark,” “Ethaline Clark,” “Ethalene Clark,” “Etalene Clark,” “Itlene Clark,” and “Itelene Clark” returned no Find a Grave memorial, no obituary, and no Festus / Jefferson County indexed hit. The Ancestry name-meaning page lists “Etalane” only as a very rare surname, not as a documented first name. The spelling “Etalane” appears in the indexed web only as internet handles (social media account, a font name), not as a historical given name. [Source: Ancestry name-origin — <https://www.ancestry.com/name-origin?surname=etalane>]

Theories / open questions

- “Etalane” is most likely a phonetic family spelling, not her legal first name. On her birth certificate, marriage license, and death certificate she is almost certainly recorded under a different spelling — likely candidates include Ethel, Etheleen, Ethelyn, Adaline, Adeline, Eileen, or another phonetically-adjacent legal name. The Missouri Death Index search will need to use these variants combined with surname Clark and Jefferson County.
- The Presidential birthday letter. The White House Greetings Office does not retain copies of greetings it sends; the physical card was mailed to the recipient and is the only artifact. If Etalane received one, the only physical evidence would be (a) the card itself among her papers; (b) a local newspaper feature or photo, since 100th birthdays were often covered locally; or (c) a funeral home or family scrapbook. The Clinton Presidential Library reference desk (clinton.library@nara.gov) may be able to confirm whether any constituent-correspondence log was retained. ## 14. Robert “Bob” Baebler — Judy Baebler’s 8th and Final Husband

Family memory (per Tricia Sanford)

- 8th and final husband of Judy Baebler.
- US Navy, served aboard ship (specifics unknown).
- Tricia’s step-grandfather. The only grandfather figure on Patsy’s side who wanted a relationship with Tricia.

Verified facts (web research)

- None located for Robert “Bob” Baebler specifically. The surname “Baebler” is concentrated in Missouri but clusters around Concordia, Monticello, St. Louis, and Wentzville — not Festus / Jefferson County. No Robert Baebler Navy obituary surfaced in indexed snippets.
- A “Robert Baebler” is referenced as a relative (parent or sibling) of Bruce William Baebler (b. 1950, St. Louis) per the MyLife public-records aggregator — <https://www.mylife.com/bruce-baebler/e30190429710> — but the page could not be verified, and this may or may not be the same person.

Next steps to request

This entry is the highest-yield NPRC request in the document. Navy personnel records survived the 1973 NPRC fire intact, so an SF-180 from next-of-kin should return a complete Official Military Personnel File.

- NPRC eVetRecs / SF-180 next-of-kin request for Robert Baebler’s Navy OMPF — <https://www.archives.gov/personnel-records-center/military-personnel/evetrecs-evetrecs.html>

- required: full name, approximate DOB, approximate service years, place of enlistment.
- Missouri Death Index 1954–2024 — direct search for “Baebler” (will return all Baebblers in MO during that window) — <https://www.missourideathindex.com/>
  - VA Gravesite Locator — search “Baebler” for any VA-marked grave — <https://gravelocator.cem.va.gov/>
  - DD-214 request via VA if Tricia or another family member is next-of-kin — <https://www.va.gov/records/get-military-service-records/>

Master Next-Steps Checklist

Records the family will need to request directly. Organized by office.

National Personnel Records Center (NPRC), St. Louis, MO

The standard request channel is SF-180 at <https://www.archives.gov/personnel-records-center>, or online via eVetRecs at <https://www.archives.gov/veterans/military-service-records>. Next-of-kin status is required for unrestricted access on records less than 62 years old.

| Person                       | What to request                                                                       | NPRC fire risk                                          |

Historical Context Appendix

Background events referenced in the entries above, with sources.

Pearl Harbor — December 7, 1941

The Imperial Japanese Navy launched a surprise carrier-based air attack on the US Pacific Fleet at Pearl Harbor, Oahu. Two waves totaling roughly 350 aircraft from six carriers, beginning at approximately 7:55 a.m. Hawaii time, sank or damaged 19 US ships (including four battleships sunk) and killed 2,403 Americans. The United States declared war on Japan the next day. ### Battle of the Bulge — December 16, 1944 – January 25, 1945

The last major German offensive on the Western Front. A 75-mile-front surprise attack through the Ardennes Forest of Belgium and Luxembourg aimed at splitting Allied lines and seizing the port of Antwerp. Over 200,000 German troops and ~1,000 tanks initially overran thin American positions, creating the “bulge” in the line, but were halted at strongpoints including Bastogne (101st Airborne) and St. Vith. Over 600,000 US troops eventually fought in it — the largest battle in US Army history — with US casualties of roughly 75,000–80,000 (including 19,246 killed per the official Army count). ### 1973 NPRC Fire — July 12, 1973

A fire reported shortly after midnight on July 12, 1973 at the National Personnel Records Center building at 9700 Page Boulevard in St. Louis, Missouri burned out of control for 22 hours and was not declared fully out until July 16. It destroyed an estimated 16–18 million US military personnel records — approximately 80% of Army personnel records for discharges November 1, 1912 – January 1, 1960, and approximately 75% of Air Force records for discharges September 25, 1947 – January 1, 1964 (surnames Hubbard through Z). No backup copies or microfilms existed. Navy and Marine Corps records were stored separately and generally survived. NPRC offers a reconstruction process using auxiliary records (Final Pay Vouchers, Morning Reports, VA index). ### 4th Strategic Aerospace Division (Strategic Air Command)

Intermediate command echelon of Strategic Air Command. Reactivated in 1951 at Barksdale AFB, Louisiana; moved to Grand Forks AFB, North Dakota in 1964; moved to Francis E. Warren AFB, Wyoming in July 1971; inactivated August 23, 1988. The “Strategic Aerospace Division” designation came from a spring-1962 SAC-wide renaming for divisions that controlled both bombers and missiles. At its 1971+ F.E. Warren station it controlled four Minuteman ICBM wings and two B-52 bomber wings. ## Battle of Hamburger Hill — May 10–20, 1969

Officially the Battle of Dong Ap Bia; “Hamburger Hill” was the soldier’s name for Hill 937 in the A Shau Valley of Vietnam. Part of Operation Apache Snow. Conducted by the 3rd Brigade, 101st Airborne Division (Airmobile) — primarily the 3rd Battalion 187th Infantry “Rakkasans”, with the 1st Battalion 506th Infantry “Currahees” and 2nd Battalion 501st Infantry also engaged. US casualties: 72 KIA / 372 WIA (narrower 3/187-only counts give 56 KIA / 367 WIA). Senator Edward Kennedy denounced the operation on the Senate floor May 20, 1969 as “senseless and irresponsible.” The LIFE magazine issue of June 27, 1969 — The Faces of the American Dead in Vietnam: One Week’s Toll — printed 242 portraits of men killed May 28 – June 3; only about five were Hamburger Hill dead, but the conflation accelerated the political turn against attritional ground assaults. ## Sweden as Asylum for US Deserters During the Vietnam War

Sweden was the only nation to grant formal asylum status to US military deserters during the Vietnam War. Roughly 800–1,000 American resisters reached Sweden between April 1967 and March 1973; about two-thirds were military deserters (not draft evaders). Sweden granted humanitarian asylum (not refugee status); the policy caused the United States to recall its ambassador to Stockholm in 1969. Most resisters returned to the US or moved on to Canada within a decade; fewer than 100 remained as permanent émigrés. Note on legal coda: Carter’s Proclamation 4483 (1977) pardoned draft evaders only; deserters were handled separately under Ford’s 1974 Clemency Program (Proclamation 4313), which required up to 24 months of alternate service for a “clemency discharge” that did not restore VA benefits. After both programs closed, individual case-by-case discharge review (ADRB or ABCMR) remained the path. The most reliable English-language reference on the Swedish deserter community is Thomas Lee Hayes, American Deserters in Sweden: The Men and Their Challenge, Association Press, 1971 — not a Hans Lagerberg book of that title, which could not be verified. ## Vietnam Heroin Epidemic and Operation Golden Flow

High-purity (~90–96%) Southeast Asian heroin became cheaply available to US troops in Vietnam beginning in spring 1970. Surveys put in-country heroin use among enlisted men around 34–43%, with about half of users meeting dependence criteria. In May 1971 President Nixon declared drug abuse “public enemy number one” and stood up the Special Action Office for Drug Abuse Prevention (SAODAP) under Dr. Jerome Jaffe. Operation Golden Flow (September 1971) required a clean urinalysis before any service member could board their “freedom bird” home. Dr. Lee Robins’s

1974 study The Vietnam Drug User Returns (SAODAP Monograph A-2) followed 965 returning servicemen and found ~34% had used heroin in Vietnam and ~20% met dependence criteria, yet only about 1% were re-addicted in the first year home and 5–12% relapsed over 1–3 years — upending the prevailing belief that opioid addiction was effectively permanent. A meaningful minority did relapse, and Vietnam-era addiction is well documented as a vector into civilian opioid use, criminal-justice involvement, and downstream mortality. ## US Army Discharge Upgrade Process

The Army Discharge Review Board (ADRB), under the Army Review Boards Agency at Fort Belvoir, reviews discharges issued within the previous 15 years on DD Form 293, submitted via ACTSOnline. After 15 years, the Army Board for Correction of Military Records (ABCMR) has jurisdiction; applications use DD Form 149. The petitioner must demonstrate the discharge was improper (issued in error or in violation of law/regulation) or inequitable (inconsistent with policies/traditions). A Dishonorable Discharge issued by a general court-martial is generally outside ADRB jurisdiction and can only be modified by the ABCMR. The 2014 Hagel memo and 2017 Kurta memo liberalized standards for PTSD/TBI/mental-health-related upgrades, but those post-date a 1970s-era upgrade. ## Rome Plows and Agent Orange

From 1962–1971 US forces sprayed approximately 19 million gallons of herbicide in Vietnam under Operation Ranch Hand, including roughly 11.2 million gallons of Agent Orange. Once foliage was killed, ground forces moved in to physically remove the woody debris and tree stumps — the dominant tool was the Rome Plow: a Caterpillar D7E (and some D9) bulldozer fitted with a two-ton “stinger” cutting blade manufactured by the Rome Plow Company of Rome, Georgia, plus a heavy protective cage. By December 1968 the Army had organized dedicated Land Clearing Companies of 30 plows each, six total — three assigned to the 20th Engineer Brigade and three to the 18th Engineer Brigade, operating under the 62nd Engineer Battalion (Land Clearing) and counterparts. They cleared 100–200 acres of triple-canopy jungle per day, often through terrain that had already been chemically defoliated, putting operators in sustained direct contact with herbicide-saturated soil, splintered biomass, and burning slash. VA today extends a blanket presumption of herbicide exposure to anyone who served in Vietnam between January 9, 1962 and May 7, 1975, with ~23 presumptive conditions for service connection (expanded under the PACT Act of 2022). ## 89th Airlift Wing and the Air Force One Mission

The 89th Airlift Wing, based at Joint Base Andrews, Maryland, is the Air Force's Special Air Mission organization providing global airlift, logistics, and secure communications for the President, Vice President, Cabinet, members of Congress, and senior military leaders. Its Presidential Airlift Group operates the two VC-25A aircraft — heavily modified Boeing 747-200Bs that carry the “Air Force One” call sign whenever the President is aboard — which entered service in 1990. The wing traces its lineage to a 1949 Air Force Reserve troop-carrier wing, was redesignated the 89th Military Airlift Wing in 1966, and became the 89th Airlift Wing in 1991. Its fleet today also includes C-32A (Boeing 757) and C-37A/B (Gulfstream) executive transports. ## Operation Southern Watch

Operation Southern Watch was the US-led coalition air operation enforcing the no-fly zone over southern Iraq, established August 27, 1992 under UN Security Council Resolution 688 (April 5, 1991), which condemned Saddam Hussein's repression of the Iraqi population including the Marsh Arabs and Shia in southern Iraq. The zone initially prohibited Iraqi fixed- and rotary-wing flight below the 32nd parallel; in 1996 the boundary was extended north to the 33rd parallel. Conducted by Joint Task Force Southwest Asia under US Central Command, with the Air Force component (US Central Command Air Forces / Ninth Air Force) headquartered at Shaw AFB, South Carolina. Coalition partners included the UK, France (until late 1996), and Saudi Arabia, with logistical support from 22 other nations. OSW ran continuously for more than ten years until it was folded into Operation Iraqi Freedom on April 14, 2003. ## White House Greetings Office / Presidential Birthday Recognition

The White House Greetings Office — a tradition of nearly 70 years — sends signed congratulatory cards from the President and First Lady for milestone occasions on free public request. Birthdays qualify starting at age 80 for civilians and age 70 for veterans; anniversaries at 50 years; centenarians (100+) are explicitly covered. Requests must be submitted at least six weeks before the date, online at <https://www.whitehouse.gov/greetings/> or through a constituent's US Senator or Representative office. The card is mailed in a White House envelope with a printed presidential signature. The White House does not routinely retain copies of greetings it sends — the physical card goes to the recipient and is the only artifact. ## Eastern European Roma / Porajmos

The Porajmos (Romani: “the Devouring”) refers to the Nazi genocide of Europe’s Roma and Sinti people during World War II. Per the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum, historians estimate that the Germans and their Axis allies killed at least 250,000 European Roma during WWII, with some scholars estimating the full death toll may reach 500,000 — roughly one-quarter of Europe’s pre-war Romani population. Romani people were shot in mass executions across occupied eastern Poland, the Soviet Union, and Serbia, and were also murdered in killing centers including Auschwitz-Birkenau, where of approximately 23,000 Roma and Sinti inmates, about 21,000 died or were killed. Persecution began in 1933 with discriminatory measures, internment in Zigeunerlager (“gypsy camps”), and forced sterilization under Nazi racial laws.
